BÍGÍ AG SPRAOI LE GAEILGE - HAVE SOME FUN WITH IRISH

The best thing about Irish as a subject is that there is really no other objective than to use the language - and it doesn't matter what you're at when you do it. You can be reading, writing, listening, singing and dancing, baking, doing a play, making a movie or playing a game - so long as you're doing it as Gaeilge, you're doing Irish! With that in mind, have a crack at the resources below, and see if you can knock some craic out of Gaeilge while you're off school.
